CHOOSE CHRIST

Weekly reflection...I simply invite you to ponder this passage from the second reading today, and see how you can apply it to your life. Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from? Is it not from your passions that make war within your members? (Jas 4:1) Why this one? Because there is so much "war" going around right now... inside of us, around us, in our families, in our workplaces, in our Church... Before we can clean out the house, we need to start with our room. Peace!

In Christ,

Seminarian Brandon Feikles

CHILD PROTECTION & SAFE ENVIRONMENTS

The Diocese of Erie, along with all dioceses of the United States, has policies and procedures in place to address the national problem of child abuse and to aid in creating safe environments. The diocese is committed to on-going screening and training of paid or volunteer persons who have regular contact with our children and youth under the age of 18. It is also committed to the yearly in-service and training of our children, youth and parents regarding touching-safety and safe environments.

To see what the Diocese of Erie is doing to help Create safe environments with children and youth. Check out

ADULT BIBLE STUDY – IT BEGINS!

The members of Religious Education are pleased to announce that a Bible Study for adults who are interested in pursuing a deeper love for the Scriptures, and ultimately for Jesus Christ, is now being offered! Facilitated by Seminarian Brandon Feikles.

To sign up or receive more information, contact Carrie or Mary Lou in the Parish Office at 724-981-5566. Details will be discussed at our first gathering, Tuesday, October 9th from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room. God Bless!

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Disagreements are common in families. But what would you say if Jesus posed the same question "What are you arguing about?" Is it silly and petty? Is it an attempt to impose your will and control on another, or to really solve a problem? Today Jesus tells us and his disciples to give it up. We are meant to serve each other, not control.
